Making Sense of AAC: Hearing, Vision, Multi-sensory impairment and Sensory Integration

4th November 2014

Lecture Theatre, Nuffield Orthopaedic Centre, Windmill Road, Headington, Oxford, OX3 7LD

9.30 Registration and coffee

10.00 ‘Finding out about functional vision’ - Judy Bell, Consultant in Special Education (visual impairment and complex needs)

10.45 ‘Communicating with adults with MSI - the perspective of a professional working in adult accommodation services' - Janice Greatrex, Practice Consultant, SENSE

11.30 Break

11.45 Julia Hampson, SLT - poster presentation - The use of objects of reference as part of a multi-sensory communication system.

12.15 A Pilot project to explore the use of TaSSeLs in a School - Janet Trebilock, SLT, Oxford Health

12.45 Lunch

1.30 Sensory Integration and its Impact on Development (children and adults).

Nerys Hughes, OT, Family Touch Point

3.45 Finish

Please Note: Parking is difficult at the Nuffield Orthopaedic Hospital. Please check the following links for alternative transport to the Hospital:
http://www.noc.nhs.uk/patientguide/findus/travel_information.aspx
http://www.parkandride.net/hospital_site/html/hospital_frameset.php

Directions to the Lecture Theatre:

- Enter the Hospital through the Main Entrance
- Go up the staircase on the left as you enter the Main Entrance.
- Follow the balcony around and enter the corridor
- The Lecture Theatre will be on the left

PLEASE COMPLETE AND RETURN THE ATTENDANCE FORM BELOW

Attendance

☐ Members free  ☐ Non-members: £15-00

Please note: this slip must be returned by 24.10.14 to ensure a place at the SIG meeting.

Please make cheques payable to AAC SIG. Please send your payment with this slip. (Invoices will not be provided but receipts will on the day!)

Name ............................................................................................................Profession............................................

Address..................................................................................................................

E-mail...................................................................................................................

Payment for Attendance is non-refundable unless you cancel your place by 24.10.14

PLEASE RETURN TO: Anne Williams, AAC Officer, Cornwall Council, Education, Health and Social Care, Fistral House, Plot 8a Truro Business Park, Threemilestone, Truro, Cornwall TR4 9NH

Email: aswilliams@cornwall.gov.uk  Tel: 07837 311604